Nestled at the foot of the Wasatch Mountains, Brigham Young University is located in Provo, Utah. Founded in 1875, the 560-acre campus is home to more than 33,000 students representing more than one hundred countries, and nearly 4,000 full-time faculty, staff, and administrators. Friendly people, beautiful surroundings, and a wealth of cultural and recreational opportunities characterize campus life.

As part of Brigham Young University, the Marriott School of Management seeks to instill strong values, high ethical standards, and a tenacious work ethic in its students. Business journals and magazines consistently report the Marriott School as one of the top business schools in the nation and the world. A Marriott School education is rooted in strong management and interdisciplinary training and supported by an emphasis on ethics and principle-based leadership.

The Marriott School offers bachelor programs in accountancy, finance, information systems, and business management. Emphases within the management degree include General Management, Entrepreneurship, Global Supply Chain, Marketing, HRM, Experience Design, and Strategy.

All students attending Brigham Young University agree to live by and adhere to the Honor code. Visit honorcode.byu.edu for more information.

Academic Expectations

Language of instruction is English for nearly all courses at BYU. Students will need to have a TOEFL score of 80 or higher with a minimum of 20 in each category.

Class format involves the student in interactive dialogue with professors, group projects, case analyses, presentations, and papers.

Class attendance and punctuality are mandatory.

Course load for students is expected to be 12-15 credits. Most courses are 3 credit hours. Exchange students may not take more than 15 credit hours.

Class sizes vary from course to course. Upper division courses usually have 30-60 students. General division courses can have up to 300 students.

Course selection: Exchange students may select any courses that are offered at BYU during their semester as long as they meet the prerequisite requirements and there is space available. Special permission for admittance may be granted to exchange students for many of the business courses that have limited enrollment. Work with the BYU coordinator to obtain desired courses.

Examinations: Each professor administers exams differently. Most courses will have 2-4 exams throughout the semester with a comprehensive final at the end of the semester. The majority of exams is a combination of open answer, multiple choice, or fill in the blank. Student must take all exams throughout the semester, not just the final exam. Most exams are taken at the testing center.
